
Cosmic kids

Where to start: Start with a conversation about space exploration, both real and fictional. What would it be like to live on a space station? What would you miss?

Prompt: Imagine that NASA is looking for kid volunteers to populate an experimental colony on Mars. Would you sign up? Why or why not?

How to go deeper: Draw an outer space place that you would like to explore. (Use the back of this page to write.)

Greatschools.org