

Humorous verse

Read these two poems out loud.

The hardest thing to do in the world

by Michael Rosen

is stand in the hot sun
at the end of a long line for ice creams watching all the people who've just bought theirs coming away from the line giving their ice creams their very first lick.

Hey Diddle, Diddle

by Michael Rosen

Hey diddle, diddle,
The cat and the fiddle,
The cow jumped over the moon;
The little dog laughed
To see such fun,
And the dish ran away with spoon.

Write a last line for this rhyme, or make up your own silly nursery rhyme.

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall, Humpty Dumpty had a great fall.

All the king's horses
And all the king's men

Read the poems together, and talk about how the poet uses words to paint a picture and create humor. In the second exercise, help your child to use nursery rhyme rhythm and structure to write a humorous last line to complete the familiar verse.
