

Here your child reads a passage of informative text. The questions help your child to identify the main facts and to analyze the way in which the information is presented. Check that your child writes his or her answers in complete sentences.