

Counting

Connect each set to the correct number.

8

9

15

10

Draw your own set to match the number.

12

Count the beads.

Counting and then re-counting to check an answer before writing anything down is a useful habit to develop. Some children will be able to count without pointing to the objects, but when re-counting, children may need to point to each item.