

Language play

Write a sound word for each of these pictures. Use the words in the box or make up your own.

boom click, clack ring, ring
ding, dong ba-doom brrrm

Words can be fun. Read these sentences, then write your own.
Pick a letter, and try to use it as much as possible.

Big baby Bobby bounces, bing, bong, BOING!

Duggy Dog digs a deep den in the dirt.

.....
.....

Words can make us laugh.

Algy met a bear.
The bear was bulgy.
What do you think?
The bulge was Algy!

Your child will enjoy having fun with language, choosing or making up words that are sound effects for the picture clues. Explain that alliteration is text where all or most of the words begin with the same sound.
