

Children may either count to find the total or determine the number of items on either side of the addition symbol and add the two numbers to find the total.